

TWO PLUS ONE IS THREE—The principals of Torrance's two existing high schools, Dale Harter and Bruce Bagner—look over plans for South High School which is expected to open by 1957.

Three Enter Occidental

Three students, residents of Torrance who attended El Camino College, are among approximately 300 newly accepted students who will enter Occidental College in the fall semester beginning Monday Sept. 12.

New students will become acquainted with Occidental life through a week-long orientation program beginning Sept. 5. Luncheons, dinners, assemblies and conferences with faculty members are scheduled.

Registration will be held Thursday and Friday (Sept. 8 and 9). The week will conclude with an all-college dance in the forecourt of Thorne Hall on Saturday, and President and Mrs. Arthur G. Coons will hold their traditional reception at their home Sunday afternoon.

Accepted students from Torrance are Gilbert and Rolland Eberhard, sons of John Wesley Eberhard, 16707 Ermanita Ave. and Marilyn K. Murray, daughter of Mrs. Florence R. Murray, 3813 West 170th St. Miss Murray will enter the freshman class at Occidental; Rolland Eberhard will be a sophomore and his brother Gilbert will be a junior.

Freshmen to Tour Campus On Sept. 14

A special day will be set for Tuesday, Sept. 13, to familiarize Torrance High School freshmen with the campus, student government, and their teachers.

All freshmen will meet at the high school auditorium at 1 p.m. for an assembly and tour of the campus planned by the Girls' and Boys' League of the High School. Time will be scheduled for a meeting with the English-Social Studies teachers for a discussion of the coming year's activities.

Transportation by school bus will be provided and definite information on bus schedules and bus stops will be published in the newspapers the week prior to the opening of school.
